
Introduction to Hugh D. Culver

It is my pleasure to introduce Hugh Culver.

Hugh is an athlete, adventurer, businessman, visionary, and someone who certainly understands the power of being passionate and inspired about your work.

For the past 17 years, Hugh has presented his special blend of street smarts, humour and passion to over 450 organizations, including: Imperial Oil, Royal Bank of Canada, Sun Rype Products, Telus, Red Cross, KPMG as well as three universities and four colleges.

Hugh spent 15 years as a professional whitewater guide and manager of the largest adventure travel company in Western Canada. He also pioneered and marketed adventure tours to the South Pole, mountain climbing expeditions and even golfing at the North Pole.

In addition to his training work, Hugh launched the largest conference in Canada on “Spirit in the Workplace” for business leaders, as well as the Dare2Dream™ youth leadership sea kayaking program on the West Coast of British Columbia.

Please join me in welcoming Hugh Culver!
