The Program in a Snapshot:

Leading Yourself

The foundation of The Complete Leader™ is about building core strengths in each leader for managing their time, talent, and ambitions. This is an exciting new approach to gaining more effectiveness and more time!

Leading Others

Through our unique Learn and Live it™ teaching methodology you will quickly improve your skills in: delegation, feedback, praising and coaching. And you will understand the critical importance of 'growing people' to build employee engagement so that they achieve more satisfaction and you achieve more freedom.

Leading the Organization

Every organization needs strong leadership. Leading the Organization means that leadership starts with the individual manager. In this section you will learn how to facilitate change in your organization, lead effective meetings and develop your plan for action.

Performance Coaching

We don't stop there! Your personal performance coach will support you in transitioning your new experience back into the workplace. Each week you will be guided to creating immediate changes and navigating the inevitable road blocks to success.
